Kilbrittain GAA Family Fun Day

Kilbrittain GAA and Kilbrittain-Timoleague Camogie are running a Family Fun Day to raise funds to allow us to run the PHE Schools Programme in Kilbrittain NS and Gurraneasig NS. This has been up and running for a few weeks now and to keep it going we need your support.

The main event on the day will be a Ball Run down the hill on the main street, balls can be purchased in Kilbrittain PO, Kilbrittain Inn and the Kilbrittain

Co-Op, thanks to all three for their support here. There will also be a few fun events on the day, face painting etc, and so promises to be a great afternoon of community Spirit. Please do come along and support for a really great service the team are providing in the schools.

The sadness of the rich young man who goes away from Jesus is something that every one of us should be able to identify with to some extent. We know what it would take build the kingdom of God, to pursue holiness, and to create a culture of love - but it just seems too much. There are too many other commitments, so many urgent things to be seen to first, too much disruption to break the patterns of a lifetime, and the fear that one might just be thought a nutter! To take discipleship really seriously - when most people in our society think that religion is just a private affair for 'the religious', and indeed there will be several in our own families and immediate circle who take a similar view - seems just a little too 'over the top.' Yet it can be done, and it has been done, and it is being done! We can only have the energy, the strength, the joy to follow the path of discipleship if we ask the Father in prayer. For us alone, it is impossible to live as disciples; but if we ask for the Father's gifts of strength, and energy, and joy, then it is possible because everything is possible for God'. Instead of going away sorrowful, we are called to stay and pray for the help we need to be disciples.
