Kilbrittain Underage Cul Camp 2015

Kilbrittain Underage would like to thank all the adults and teenagers who volunteered as helpers during the camp this week. 113 boys and girls (aged 6 to 13) from the parish took part. The camp was a great success and lots of fun despite the weather, and this would not have been possible without your help and enthusiasm.

From Encyclical 'Laudato Si'

72. The Psalms frequently exhort us to praise God the Creator, "who spread out the earth on the waters, for his steadfast love endures for ever" (Ps 136:6). They also invite other creatures to join us in this praise: "Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars! Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens! Let them praise the name of the Lord, for he commanded and they were created" (Ps 148:3-5). We do not only exist by God's mighty power; we also live with him and beside him.

This is why we adore him.

73. The writings of the prophets invite us to find renewed strength in times of trial by contemplating the all-powerful God who created the universe. Yet God's infinite power does not lead us to flee his fatherly tenderness, because in him affection and strength are joined. Indeed, all sound spirituality entails both welcoming divine love and adoration, confident in the Lord because of his infinite power. In the Bible, the God who liberates and saves is the same God who created the universe, and these two divine ways of acting are intimately and inseparably connected: "Ah Lord God! It is you who made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm! ... You brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders" (Jer 32:17, 21).
"The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless" (Is 40:28b-29).
