Lectio Divina

For the month of August Lectio Divina will be held every Thursday night at 8:30 in Farnagark. Come and join us for an hour or so. For further information please contact Majella or Tim on 0877965321.

Community Assoc Fundraiser

Kilbrittain Community Association is starting a fundraiser this weekend. Many of you will know the late Joe Lynch who was Chairman of the Association for many years. One of the many things Joe did to raise money for the Community, was to collect spare change from people in a 5 litre glass bottle. He was often seen at local events with the bottle and when the bottle got too heavy to carry, he had a little trolley on wheels made for it by Paul Hunt and continued to fill the bottle. Unfortunately Joe was taken from us far too soon and now the Community want to raise money with that bottle. A "Guess how much is in the Bottle" competition is starting and the prize is €1,000 for whoever guesses nearest the amount in the bottle. Kilbrittain Community Centre members will be calling to all houses in the Parish in the next 2 weeks with Joe's Bottle Guesses. We would greatly appreciate your support. There will be an online facility shortly as well for those farther afield. Also any member of the Community Association will be more than happy to take your guesses.

From Encyclical 'Laudato Si'

75. A spirituality which forgets God as all-powerful and Creator is not acceptable. That is how we end up worshipping earthly powers, or ourselves usurping the place of God, even to the point of claiming an unlimited right to trample his creation underfoot. The best way to restore men and women to their rightful place, putting an end to their claim to absolute dominion over the earth, is to speak once more of the figure of a Father who creates and who alone owns the world. Otherwise, human beings will always try to impose their own laws and interests on reality.
