ORDINATION CONGRATULATIONS

On Saturday last Patrick Nugent was ordained to the priesthood for our diocese by Bishop John Buckley. The previous weekend Evin O'Brien was ordained to the Diaconate in Maynooth. We ask your continued prayers for Fr Patrick, Rev Evin and for our two other seminarians studying in Maynooth. If you are interested in knowing more about priesthood in our diocese contact Fr Thomas Deenihan on 021 4301717.

In coming to this Eucharist we have answered the invitation of God to be present on Calvary. Let us thank God for the love that is poured out over us from the wounded heart of Jesus. May our awareness of his love awaken us to change our lives where change is necessary and so open the way for forgiveness and the love for which we long.

As we watch Jesus in today's Gospel may we learn that when we are the one offended it is up to us to make the first move. It may take time for us to be ready to make it. It is worth waiting till we are ready, for then we can show our hurt to the one who has hurt us, but show it in such a way as to offer love. Please God our offer of love will bring about a change, not only in word but in truth and in action in the one who has hurt us. If so we will enjoy a restored communion in love. If not, we at least are free from reacting out of our hurt; at least we are free to offer love. We cannot pretend things are other than they really are and we cannot behave as though love has been restored when it has not. But we are ready for love's restoration if and when the person who offended us acknowledges the offence, changes their behaviour, welcomes our love and offers love in return.

We can imagine the feelings of profound communion that welled up in the woman's heart when Jesus responded so beautifully to her offer of love. God loves you and me no less.
