Jubilee Year of Mercy Pilgrimage to Cork Saturday 15th October.

In accord with the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has declared that the Holy Doors will be opened for pilgrims to pass through and experience the loving mercy of God. The Diocese of Cork and Ross pilgrimage is based on the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy, and follows a route of five stations through the city. A parish pilgrimage will be held on 15th October, beginning with 10.00 Mass in Kilbrittain. We expect to leave Cork at about 3.00 pm on the return journey. We will travel by bus to the city, and visit these five stations, which are quite close to each other:

- Cork Penny Dinners, Little Hanover Street. The aim of this organisation is to provide a hot, nourishing midday meal to everyone who calls, and it serves over 1000 meals every week. Those who cook, serve and wash up are volunteers, who never judge, just offer a warm welcome. We are encouraged to bring a small gift of perishable foods (like gravy granules, orange cordial) or kitchen cleaning items (tea towels, black refuse sacks).
- The Holy Door, St Francis Church, Liberty Street. Confessions are available here.
- The Shrine of the Holy Souls, Church of Ss Peter and Paul, Paul Street.
- Trócaire, Cook Street. We will see a short video on the work done by Trócaire, and are invited to sign campaign cards to add to the drive to respond to injustices in our world today.
- St Finbarr's South Parish Church, the oldest parish church in the city, and site of the shrine of Venerable Mary
