Masses this Week

Monday BANK HOLIDAY 10.00 am

Tuesday NO MASS

Wednesday to Friday 9.00 am.

Saturday 10.00 am

NO Eucharistic Adoration this Monday due to Bank Holiday.

First Friday

Friday next is the First Friday of June. Calls to the sick and housebound will be made during the week.

A special word of thanks to everybody who took part in the 'Rosary for May' at the Grotto on any of the nights. Many people were in attendance every night.

Féile

Kilbrittain camogie and GAA will welcome teams from Laois and Mayo on next weekend for Féile. We are hosting 50 children and their families in the parish, and will be offering refreshments for over 300 people in the Parish Hall. We would appreciate donations of baking, which can be dropped to the hall from 4.30 on Friday or 10.00 am on Saturday. If you're free to help out in the hall, even for an hour, we'd love to see you between 4.30 to 9.00 pm on Friday or 10.00 am to 1.00 pm on Saturday. Thank you.

Mission Accomplished

The ascension completes Jesus's earthly mission and signifies his enthronement as heavenly king. Jesus has completed his Father's mission and he now rules with all authority and intercedes with all sympathy as our mediator and high priest.

Remember that Jesus is presently reigning as king and remains active and engaged in our world and our lives. Therefore live boldly, confidently, and strategically as servants of the exalted king of heaven. ~~Know that your labors in the Lord~~ Jesus are not in vain (1 Corinthians 15:58).

Sufferers, take heart that Jesus is not indifferent to your struggle. He has endured great suffering and is thus the most merciful and sympathetic counsellor and mediator. Take your cares to your ascended Lord who hears your prayers and can respond with all heaven's authority.

Finally hope in a glorious future. The ascended Lord will return as judge and king. He will abolish injustice, end suffering, and destroy death and set up his kingdom of truth, righteousness and love. Best of all, we will be with our king forever.
