A Baby's Passing

I copied the lines below from a headstone I saw in a cemetery during the week on the grave of a baby girl who was born and died on the same day.

I did not die young
I lived my span of life within your body and within your love
There are many who have lived long lives
And who have not been loved as me.
If you would honour me, then speak my name
And number me among your family.
If you would honour me then strive to live in love
For in that love I live.
Never, ever doubt that we will meet again.
Until that happy day I will grow with God and wait for you.
