Donald Trump Addresses US March for Life

The 47th Annual March For Life, commemorating the legalisation of abortion in America, took place this week. For the first time ever it was addressed by an incumbent President.

In the opinion of many people Trump has, by past and present behaviour, sullied the dignity of the Presidency of the US. Nevertheless, and accepting that as being true, can we read these extracts from his speech without acknowledging that almost every one of our own 'statesmen' -- knocking at our doors these weeks -- isn't fit to lick the boots of even Donald Trump?

(Why haven't our own media copied and broadcast this speech? Silly question!)

'We are here for a very simple reason: to defend the right of every child, born and unborn, to fulfil their God-given potential.'

'All of us here understand an eternal truth: Every child is a precious and sacred gift from God. Together, we must protect, cherish, and defend the dignity and the sanctity of every human life.'

'At the United Nations, I made clear that global bureaucrats have no business attacking the sovereignty of nations that protect innocent life.'

'We have taken decisive action to protect the religious liberty -- so important -- religious liberty has been under attack all over the world and frankly, very strongly attacked in our nation. You see it better than anyone. But we are stopping it. And we're taking care of doctors, nurses, teachers, and groups like the Little Sisters of the Poor.'

'We cannot know what our citizens yet unborn will achieve. The dreams they will imagine. The masterpieces they will create. The discoveries they will make. But we know this: every life brings love into this world. Every child brings joy to a family. Every person is worth protecting.'
