Five weeks since the donation button went up on the parish website and not a brown cent! I didn't give the matter any thought, expecting that this would be slow to start anyway. Turns out that there was some fault in our account setup from the PayZone side of things which they weren't aware of until now.

A welcome excuse, though, to remind everyone that offertory collections and dues can be accepted via Credit Card on a once-off basis or for recurring automatically.

ALIVE! The Catholic monthly newspaper 'Alive' is once more available in our porches after a long absence due to lack of distributors. See also website alive.ie
