Historical Society

Kilbrittain Historical Society is going on a guided historical walking tour of Castletownkenneigh Round Tower and Graveyard on Wednesday next 18th August. Eircode is P47WO23. Please meet up at the Tower at 7 pm that evening. The outdoors talk will be given by a local historian, Colum Cronin. Covid-19 safety guidelines must be adhered to. All members are welcome to come along. Contact: 087-2417325 for queries.

A reminder that every week you will find a copy of the "Look" leaflet in the racks at the door under the Bulletin. It has lessons on the Gospel of the day and puzzles for the younger members of our congregation.

We already have some people availing of the 'Donate' button on www.kilbrittain.org to sign up for automatic monthly donations to the Offertory Collection and the Dues as well some once-off payments and anonymous donations. Thank you for your generosity.

In contemplating Mary in celestial glory, we understand that for us too the earth is not the definitive homeland and that, if we live turned towards eternal goods, we will one day share her same glory and the earth will also become more beautiful. For this reason, even amidst the thousands of daily difficulties, we must not lose serenity and peace. The luminous sign of Our Lady assumed into heaven shines out even more when sad shadows of suffering and violence seem to accumulate on the horizon. We are certain of it: from on high, Mary follows our steps with sweet trepidation, she comforts us in the hour of darkness and storm, she reassures us with her maternal hand. Sustained by this awareness, let us continue with trust on our pathway of Christian commitment there where Providence leads us. Let us, under Mary's guidance, go forward in our lives.

Pope Benedict XVI, 16th Aug 2006
