Kilbrittain Foroige

It is hoped to restart the Foroige Club in Kilbrittain this Autumn. This cannot happen without new adult leaders. Our information meeting is rescheduled for Wednesday September 14th at 7.30pm in Kilbrittain Community Hall. This is open to parents of likely members, past members over 18 years and anyone else interested in leading the club into the future. John Dennigan, development officer, will attend, and will outline what Foroige is about, how leaders become involved and decide if there is enough support available to restart the club. Unfortunately, the bottom line is, if we don't get leaders, there will be no club.

instead of - there will be a monthly programme on Radio Maria Ireland, at 7 p.m. on the last Friday of each month, for 'The Sheaf' and for St. Joseph's Young Priests Society. It is hoped that it will be another way to bring 'The Sheaf' and the Society to the members, especially those who may not be able to attend meetings, and to a wider audience who may not know about the great good work of the Society and who may be inspired to become members, D.V. Please listen in, if you can, and encourage members and friends to do so too. The guest for September's programme (30th September at 7 p.m.) will be Fr. Joseph Keegan, a newly ordained Priest who was featured in the Spring 2022 issue of 'The Sheaf'

If you are unfamiliar with it, Radio Maria Ireland is a Catholic Radio Station based in Dublin for almost a decade. Unfortunately, it is not on the actual radio. It is not available by FM, MW, LW etc. However, you can listen in through the website www.radiomaria.ie or by downloading a smartphone app, which, I appreciate, may not be easy for everyone. It is also available on television, if you have SAORVIEW, on channel 210.
