Kilbrittain Foroige Club.

We are delighted to announce that the club is now in a position to restart as a result of the commitment of existing leaders and a group of very enthusiastic new leaders who have come forward in the last number of weeks. Without this commitment we would not have been able to get the club back up and running.

The Registration and Information Night will take place on Monday Night the 10th of October, in The Hall, at 8 pm. Potential Members and their Parents are asked to attend on the night.

Membership is open to Secondary School young people. The Club will meet on Friday nights once we are back up and running.

St Joseph's Young Priests' Society

Cork and Ross Diocesan Committee.

A meeting of the Cork and Ross Diocesan Committee will be held in the Crypt, Church of the Holy Spirit, Dennehy's Cross, Cork on Sunday, 9th October, 2022 at 3pm.

As you are aware our last Diocesan meeting was held in February 2020. Some Branches have been meeting safely over the past number of months and we hope more Branches will be back meeting soon in a safe environment.

We know what lockdowns and restrictions are like and how important it is to stay connected with family and friends so coming together for our Diocesan meeting is important for your Branch and for the Society.

Many Branches were represented at the 'Remembrance Mass' which was held in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Dennehy's Cross in May for all our members and relatives who had died during Covid.

Our meeting in the Crypt should be a safe place to meet and we hope to see you there on the 9th October, please God.

Massah and Meribah

Today's Psalm is chosen for its echoing of Jesus' appeal in the Gospel to have faith. It recalls an episode during the Exodus when the people lost faith in God's willingness to help them despite all the miracles he had already done to set them free from slavery and survive in the wilderness..

From the Book of Exodus 17:1-7

'All the congregation of the people of Israel camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." And Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?" But the people thirsted there for water, and the people grumbled against Moses and said, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?" So Moses cried to the Lord, "What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me." And the Lord said to Moses, "Take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb, and you shall strike the rock, and water shall come out of it, and the people will drink." And Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. And he called the name of place Massah and Meribah, because of the quarreling of the people of Israel, and because they tested the Lord by saying, "Is the Lord among us or not?"'
