New Bulletin Format

We purchase the Bulletin with the Mass side pre-printed and the other side blank for our own publication. Our previous suppliers, the Dominican Press, has ceased printing because of cost so we're trialling a different source for the coming weeks.

St. Thomas More was a brilliant lawyer and diplomat in 16th century England. His patriotism and loyalty to the throne attracted the attention of King Henry VIII who made him Lord Chancellor of England. What Henry VIII did not know was that Thomas More's first loyalty was to Christ, the King of kings. When Henry VIII decided to divorce his wife Catherine of Aragon, marry Anne Boleyn, and make himself head of the Church of England, Thomas More thought this was not right. Rather than approve what he believed to be against the Divine will, he resigned from his prestigious and wealthy position as Lord Chancellor and he and his family lived a life of poverty thereafter. Since he would not give his support to the king, Thomas More was arrested, convicted of treason, imprisoned in the Tower of London in 1534 and beheaded in July of the following year. On his way to public execution, More encouraged the people to remain steadfast in the Faith. His last recorded words were: "I die the king's good servant, but God's first."— For More, it was not simply enough to confess Christ privately in the safety of his heart and home; he believed one must also confess Christ in one's business and professional life as well as in the laws and policies that govern society. (Fr. Munacci)
