Today's Gospel

When David volunteered to fight Goliath, they said, "You're only a teenager. You're not worth anything. What do you know? You have no experience."

He says, "No, at the sheep gate, I defended my sheep from lions and tigers and leopards and wild dogs and thieves, and I drove them all away and they knew they were safe with me." And it was true.

So now when Jesus says, "I am the gate," he is saying more, "I am the Good Shepherd, the one who defends and takes care of and makes his sheep feel secure, and never loses them and lays his life down for them," which Jesus does.
