Yet If His Majesty, Our Sovereign Lord

Yet if his majesty, our sovereign lord,
Should of his own accord
Friendly himself invite,
And say, "I'll be your guest tomorrow night,"

How should we stir ourselves, call and command

All hands to work! "Let no man idle stand.

Set me fine Spanish tables in the hall,
See they be fitted all;

.....
Thus if the king were coming would we do,

And 'twere good reason too;

For 'tis a duteous thing

To show all honour to an earthly king,

And, after all our travail and our cost,

So he be pleased, to think no labour lost.

But at the coming of the King of Heaven

All's set at six and seven:

We wallow in our sin;

Christ cannot find a chamber in the inn.

We entertain him always like a Stranger,

And, as at first, still lodge him in the manger.
