First Friday

Next Friday is the First Friday of June. Calls to the housebound are resuming. If there is somebody else who would like to be put on the list, contact Fr Cremin.

Corpus Christi

Sunday next, June 6th. Instead of the procession of normal times, it is proposed to have the Blessed Sacrament carried through the village on the back of the jeep as was done last year. We didn't announce this beforehand last year because of the uncertainty about the way people would gather and the unfamiliarity with the degree of caution necessary.

By this time, restrictions have eased somewhat and, more importantly, everybody understands and follows behaviour for best practice now. Recent funerals have shown that very large numbers can be safely accommodated when standing in reverence along the street, numbers far larger than we expect for the procession. Please be aware, though, that the church can only accommodate a very small number and for this reason please try to stick to your townland zone for the Sunday Mass, even though it may be tempting to combine Mass and procession.

The procession will begin at 12.00 noon, not directly after Mass. It will take the same route as last year: Past the cemetery, turn around at Gortnahorna, pause at the grotto, turn back at the Village Park, detour to Castle View and Meadow View and return to the church for Benediction.

All this depends on suitable weather. As an alternative, a blessing will be given from the top of the church steps after Mass.

Eucharistic Adoration

There will be Eucharistic Adoration on next Sunday, Corpus Christi, from 1.00 pm to 8.00 pm, finishing with Benediction. Adorers are invited to sign up for individual hours. For this, there will be a clipboard in front of the altar all the week and people can also text, email or FB message their choice of hour to Fr Cremin. As last year, a Facebook post will be kept updated with numbers signing up for each hour as the week goes on.

Weekly Adoration

It is hoped to return to regular weekly Adoration, (Mon 9.30 to 1; Wed 2 to 8) on Monday week, 7th June. Adorers are asked to resume their rotas.

Historical Society Zoom

Hosting the fourth night in our series of live Zoom video Kilbrittain Volunteer Centenary Presentations next Monday night 31st May at 8pm. The subject of the presentation is: 'Lt. Con Murphy and Comdt. Diarmuid Hurley'. Lt. Con Murphy, was killed in Cloundereen on the 11th May 1921. This talk will be given by Brian Murphy (Relative). Comdt. Diarmuid Hurley, native of Baurleigh, was killed at Carrigogna, Midleton on the 28th May 1921. This talk will be given by Michael Larkin. Existing members will automatically receive the meeting link and anyone else who would like to request a link can text their email address to 0876689116. All request texts for Zoom meeting attendance should be made by Sunday night.

Community Association

We are intending, weather permitting, to paint the dressing rooms in the Community Field on next Wednesday evening 2nd June. We would be delighted if you could help us out. Anybody available from 6pm. Please bring yourself and a friend and we will provide paint and brushes. The more the merrier.
