No Mass Tuesday

Mass Wed, Thurs and Fri 9.00 am.

Kilshinihan Church and Mass Rock

Work on clearing Kilshinihan Church and surrounds and opening access to the site has now been completed to a very high standard thanks to a wonderful input of voluntary labour, materials and machinery. This task has been shared between parishioners of Kilbritten and Timoleague.

The Mass Rock has been kept maintained over the years by some of the neighbours and the site therefore needed very little work. The parish has commissioned the replacement of the wire surrounding the balcony by a glass and steel protective barrier and this should be finished before the end of this month.

Pray for fine weather for Thursday, August 3rd. Fr Cremin and Fr Hickey will be concelebrating Mass in the church, the first in hundreds of years. The combined choirs of Kilbritten, Timoleague and Clogagh will take part in the liturgy. In conjunction with Kilbritten Historical Society and Kilbritten Festival, the Mass will be followed by a talk on the history of the ancient parish of Kilshinihan.

Special TRÓCAIRE emergency collection at all Masses this weekend

The Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference has announced that special second collections at all Masses will take place across Ireland this weekend to fund life-saving aid for people currently affected by the devastating hunger crisis in east-Africa. The money raised will be donated to Trócaire, the overseas development agency of the Catholic Church in Ireland, which is delivering emergency food, water and health care to the 25 million people affected.

Severe drought is currently affecting Kenya, South Sudan, Somalia and Ethiopia and this has resulted in failed harvests and the widespread death of livestock. Conflict has exacerbated the effects in South Sudan and Somalia, with areas in both countries now on the verge of famine.

Kilbritten Festival is on between the 3rd to 7th and also the 12th of August.

Please see posters/facebook page for details. Programmes will be out soon.

Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina is taking a Summer break for the month of July and will restart again in August
