Dues Envelopes

It had been getting difficult for many of the regular distributors to find time to commit themselves four times a year to distributing the brown envelopes for support of the priest: Spring and Autumn Dues and Christmas and Easter Offerings. In response, these have been replaced by four white envelopes in the yearly box delivered for 2018. So far, fewer of these have been returned than in the previous system. Some people may not have realised what their function was.

Anam Cara National Bag Pack 2018

Anam Cara is committed to continue offering all our services at no charge to bereaved parents and families throughout Ireland. Anam Cara's main fundraising event for 2018 is our national bag pack, once again in conjunction with Dunnes Stores.

We are looking for some supportive volunteers who would consider helping us for a couple of hours on Saturday 17th November at Dunnes Stores, Bishopstown between 10am - 6pm. While bag packing may not be the most exciting venture in the world, the income raised on these days helps us to keep our services up and running for those suffering the ultimate loss.

If you are interested in helping out, please email Pam at p.gaffney@anamcara.ie.

The sadness of the rich young man who goes away from Jesus is something that every one of us should be able to identify with to some extent.

We know what it would take build the kingdom of God, to pursue holiness, and to create a culture of love – but it just seems too much. There are too many other commitments, so many urgent things to be seen to first, too much disruption to break the patterns of a lifetime, and the fear that one might just be thought a nutter!

To take discipleship really seriously – when most people in our society think that religion is just a private affair for 'the religious', and indeed there will be several in our own families and immediate circle who take a similar view – seems just a little too 'over the top.'
