Tuesday: NO MASS
Wed and Thurs 9.00 am.

Kilbrittain Cemetery Prayers

As explained in last week's Bulletin, I am reluctantly cancelling the Kilbrittain Cemetery Mass for 2020. Practical difficulties in ensuring social distancing would be impossible to overcome, given the large crowds we have in the cemetery each year.

The Feast Day and the Sunday Masses next weekend will include special prayers for the dead of Kilbrittain cemetery and for those who mourn them. In addition, I will visit the cemetery on Friday and bless the graves privately. In connection with that blessing, there will be little bottles of Holy Water available in the porches before and after Masses for people to take one for each grave.

Eucharistic Adoration

As normal this week
Monday 9.00 am to 1.00 pm.
Wednesday 2.00 to 8.00 pm.

"Today, the false prophets of the world tell us that, as a result of what is happening today in our nation and world, our life will never be the same. They tell us that we have to reset our lives, in other words, to organize our lives according to principles which they dictate to us. But our life in Christ is always the same, even as Christ Himself 'is the same yesterday and today and for ever.' Yes, our lives have to change but not in the way that the worldly experts would dictate.

Let us never again follow the worldly wisdom of closing our chapels and churches in a time of crisis, depriving ourselves of the most privileged encounters with Christ Our Lord and Savior, but rather let us make our churches ever more open, so that we have access to the great reality we celebrate today: Christ living for us in His holy temple, in order to heal us and strengthen us until the day of His Final Coming at the end of time."
